

Schools Ministry Coordinator

Scripture Union NT is seeking to appoint a Schools Ministry Coordinator. This position is currently funded by a partnership between Bush Church Aid and SUNT.

The Schools Ministry Coordinator will be a committed Christian who also participates actively in their local church.

His or her aim will be to build on the organisation's existing strong School Ministry foundation and be a motivational leader. The main part of the role will be to continue the coordination of the existing Religious Education in the schools across Darwin and surrounding areas, and the support and resourcing of ISCF and SUPA groups in schools.

The Schools Ministry Coordinator will work collaboratively with Schools (both Govt and private schools), Northern Territory churches, para church organisations and supportive volunteers to facilitate the delivery of SUNT's school's ministry. A strong element of this work includes training, coaching and mentoring of staff and volunteers within the school context.

The School Ministry Coordinator's role is a full-time job and is a challenging and exciting opportunity to grow the SUNT school ministry and to lead and manage its daily activities in ministry to children, young people and families within NT schools.

The role is based in Darwin, but may at times, require some travel to other parts of the NT. Over time, the applicant will be required to assist in the raising of funds towards the role.

Position to commence in early 2021.

Applicants will:

- Have experience in working with children and families and a strong understanding of the school context
- Have excellent people and networking skills
- Be well organised, outcome oriented, able to work well in a team and autonomously
- Have leadership experience, including experience in training others
- Have a mature personal faith and values consistent with SU's and BCA's ethos and theology
- Have current eligibility to work in Australia

Applications for the position close on October 31st, 2020.
