Safe Ministry Policy

DOCUMENT NUMBER	SM001
TYPE	Policy
SUBJECT	Safe Ministry Policy
AUTHORISED BY	Diocesan Council in accordance with Part 3 of the Professional Standards Ordinance 2017.
DATE AUTHORISED	8 th November 2019

SCOPE

The Safe Ministry Policy applies to all Parishes, Ministry Units, Entities and all church workers (ordained and non-ordained, paid and voluntary, licensed and unlicensed) whose ministry is associated with the ministry of the Anglican Church in the Diocese of Northern Territory, with the exception of Anglicare NT and Nungalinya College. These organisations have their own safety policies and protocols as approved by their respective boards.

COMMITMENT

The Diocese of the Northern Territory is committed to safe ministries. This means that Diocesan parishes, ministries and entities should be person-valuing, harm-free and respectful environments for ministry to God's glory.

This Safe Ministry policy expresses our Diocese's commitment to our pastoral, biblical, insurance, legal and duty of care responsibilities, in accordance with Part 3 of the Professional Standards Ordinance 2017 and associated protocols, with the intended goal that all ministries are spiritually, emotionally and physically safe.

As a Diocese we are also committed to implementing the recommendations from the Anglican General Synod in relation to safer ministry underpinned by the Diocesan Code of Conduct: Faithfulness in Service.

As a Diocese we are also committed to ensuring that the collection, storage, access to, and sharing of information is consistent with legislated Privacy Principles.

We therefore seek to build and maintain safe ministry communities by:

- fostering relationships between members, and people in the wider community, based on the teachings of Jesus Christ
- establishing and maintaining guidelines and processes to minimise the risk of harm and abuse, ministry misconduct and the misuse of positional power
- providing responsible and loving Christian leadership and management practices built on a scriptural base
- ensuring that cases of alleged abuse, ministry misconduct and grievances are handled in a consistent, transparent, fair and just manner (also known as procedural fairness) and that these processes are child-focused when involving children and young people.
- Acknowledging the need for sensitivity and special consideration of people from culturally and/or linguistically diverse backgrounds, including Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples, as well as any person with a disability.

RATIONALE

We affirm that all people have the right to be spiritually, emotionally and physically safe.

This Policy and the Code of Conduct are underpinned by Jesus Christ's words: "Love the Lord your God with all your heart, soul, mind and strength; and love your neighbour as yourself." These commands guide our behaviour in our relationships and provide the basis for the establishment and exercise of safe activities and events, run in safe environments in an abuse-free Christian community. Further, the Bible identifies classes of vulnerable people who are to be protected and given special care and treatment in society because of their powerlessness such as the poor, widows, orphans and aliens (Exodus 22:21-22, Deuteronomy 10:17-19, Jeremiah 22:2-4, James 1:27. As God's people we are called to act justly, love mercy and walk humbly before him (Micah 6:8).

This policy has been developed to help us live out our biblical mandate and our responsibilities under the Anglican Church of Australia and government legislation and regulations.

POLICY STATEMENTS

1) Safe Recruitment

- All church workers are assessed for their suitability before they are appointed in ministry positions by following the Diocesan Due Diligence Appointment Protocol covering recruiting, screening and appointing of church workers.

2) Adequate Training

- All church workers regularly undertake approved Safe Ministry Training (e.g. Safe Ministry Workshop).
- All church workers receive ongoing education and attend additional ministry-specific training as mandated by the Diocese and / or their local ministry supervisor, particularly ensuring that workers are equipped with the knowledge, skills and awareness to keep children and vulnerable persons safe.

3) Continued Supervision

- All church workers are encouraged to access on-going leadership training, supervision and support.
- All church workers are required to embrace and comply with the Diocesan Code of Conduct: Faithfulness in Service.
- All church workers are required to comply with all relevant canons, ordinances, policies and protocols.

4) Safe Environments

- The ideas and feelings of program participants, including children and their families, are valued through encouraging input into the programs and activities in which they are participate, and freedom to decline participation in any part of a program.
- Physical and online environments promote safety and wellbeing and minimise the opportunity for children and young people to be harmed.
- All church workers take all reasonable and practical steps to minimise risks of physical and psychological harm and care for their own health and the health of others involved in ministry;
- Parish Councils together with ministry leaders are responsible for meeting the requirements of the Work Health and Safety Act and associated regulations including the establishment and maintenance of: WHS, fire safety, building safety, first aid, food safety, safe transport, incident and emergency procedures.
- Parish Councils and relevant Church workers follow the Diocesan Privacy Protocol with respect to information relating to other church workers and program participants.

5) Safe to raise concerns

- Church workers are required to report all safe ministry concerns, including grievances, significant breaches of Faithfulness in Service or disclosures or suspicions of child abuse and/or sexual misconduct to the Diocesan Safe Ministry Helpline. The Helpline staff ensure the implementation of the appropriate safe ministry ordinance, policy and/or protocols.
- Church workers are committed to a child-centered approach to responding to concerns about a child or group of children who may be at risk of harm.
- Church workers are committed to providing survivors of sexual and/or child abuse by church workers with appropriate care and assistance through our Diocesan process for provision of pastoral care and assistance for those abused by church workers.
- Where a church worker has an allegation of ministry misconduct made against them, the Diocesan Professional Standards Ordinance and/or relevant canons, ordinance or Safe Ministry protocols are implemented to ensure that all parties receive appropriate support, and procedural fairness.
